Application to Participate (1)

(Saturday June 17, 2023)

The Christian Family Parade is an established organization with a track record of consistency and a vision that affects our communities with a positive message from the Word of the living God.

The purpose of the Christian Family Parade is to share the Gospel, Evangelize the unreached, Encourage and Equip children, youth and the whole family for active service for Jesus Christ in their community, local Church and in the world.

The Christian Family Parade seeks to help children, youth and the Church to claim and express their own gifts of faith and share them with our larger community. Our focus is that all children, youth and the whole family are edified and blessed with the powerful presence of God.

We are honored to have been carrying this message to so many families for the past 65 years, since 1958!

Before completing the application, make sure you have read the Parade Rules and Regulations.

Below you will find the registration and relevant information. Please complete and submit your application and participation donation no later than the Tuesday, May 30, 2023 deadline.
